THE BELSTEADS SCHOOL

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Read more - Our week has been interesting and exciting, as always.

Today, we have supported Children in Need and our students and some staff, have dressed up or down and it created a lovely atmosphere. Inspire Class kindly organised a pop up cafe in the dining room at break time and they provided drinks and snacks as a special treat.

Liam in Year 7, has reached the Hall of Fame for the first time and he will receive his special certificate on Monday in assembly. Well done, Liam!

We have seen some excellence science work on reversible and irreversible changes and lots of humanities work about continents too.

PE this week was a challenge of different fast paced activities and students had to complete 25 of each one, as part of the Children in Need fund raising.

Trey, Destiny, Harley and Jack also helped to create a cosy new bed for the ducks. It's great to have volunteers across the school.

THIS WEEK'S ASSEMBLY

Nicole's assembly was about anti bullying week. There are information posters around the school, on display.

Photos include:

Some classes are visiting Barleylands Farm Museum next week, as part of our topic of Food Glorious Food. Our DJ, Jerome is back on site and all students are continuing their DJ and mixing skills.

Congratulations to Angus, who has been awarded the Jack Petchey award. He now has £300 to spend on something he would like to see or to do at school. Angus has been volunteering his help at school and at home and he is a great role model to others!

There are two more opportunities for students to work towards this gaining this award over the next two terms.

My award this week goes to Skyla, who has worked incredibly hard and she has been very helpful both in class and around the school. I am very proud of you, Skyla!
