THE BELSTEADS SCHOOL

NEWS OF THE WEEK

This week, we were visited by Paul Hannaford MBE. Paul travels around the country, visiting young people, to explain the dangers of taking drugs. Paul is an ex drug addict and his personal story is very moving. We have copies of his book at school and this is the link to his website:

The gardening club have been busy. They helped with planting trees and with watering the raised beds too.

Another trip to Cudmore Grove took place on Tuesday. Students from Ignite, Flourish, Thrive and Inspire classes really enjoyed a day of exploration around the coast. The DJ sessions have just ended for this half term. After half term, it will be drama!

Monday's assembly was led by Erica. A short talk about family history and how her family are now spread out across the world. Also, a little reminder about the school's values and our behaviour towards one another.
