THE BELSTEADS SCHOOL

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Our first week back has been really lovely. Students have started their new topic of Sustainability and it has been good to see them all back at school. The weather has been better and we've been able to use our outdoor gym equipment and the swings, which makes a nice change. It must be almost Spring! We were delighted today, to present Brad, one of our members of staff, with the Jack Petchey Award. Brad co-leads our PE across the school and he is just fabulous at encouraging students to take part in sport and he supports them in class really well too. Thank you, Brad!
